INTRODUCTION

We are pleased to present "FOOTBALL IN EUROPE 1990/91", documenting the game in each country during the recently completed season.

The information provided in this book has been acquired from the countries of origin, experience having shown us that there is no other way of ensuring it's reliability. Our most grateful thanks therefore go out to our network of correspondents, whose loyalty and co-operation have made this publication possible.

Due to its largely statistical content "FOOTBALL IN EUROPE" will cross language barriers and we feel sure that our publication will be welcomed throughout Europe, being ideally suited to the increasing demand for information concerning the International game.

We have every reason to believe that the two previous editions of "FOOTBALL IN EUROPE" were very well received and look forward to the compilation of further volumes for many years to come.

We regret that line-up details for matches against Shetland Islands and Iceland are not available. Caps totals are as made available by the F.A. of the Faroe Islands. In our opinion, however, it is considered likely that they contain appearances for the Faroe Islands in friendly matches not recognised as full internationals.

THE UNIFICATION OF GERMANY

The reunification of Germany became politically a fact on the 1st of July 1990. Although a mood of optimism was prevalent at the time, events during the past 12 months have shown that many problems will take years to solve.

As far as football is concerned, reunification brings important changes to the structure of the game as well as again raising questions brought about by the dual existence of the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic. We therefore consider explanations necessary regarding the documentation to be found in 'FOOTBALL IN EUROPE'.

INTERNATIONAL REVIEWS

■ has of course been our policy to compile separate annual reviews for DDR (German Democratic Republic/East Germany) and West Germany (Federal Republic of Germany). Due to their dual existence we have ignored matches played by Germany between 1908 and 1942 when calculating All Time Records of caps and goals. It should be pointed out however that the DFB (the football federation of the Federal Republic of Germany) has always recognised these matches as they were played under their control. We have always felt that following this example would have brought into question the existence of the DDR and have therefore restricted West German International Reviews to matches played by West Germany since 1950. Reunification has caused us to rethink this policy as the new International Review for Germany would be quite meaningless if only matches played between 1908 and 1942 were used for calculating all time records. It has therefore been decided to calculate these records from the matches played by Germany between 1908 and 1942 together with those played by West Germany between 1950 and 1990. In other words, all matches played under the control of the DFB. Another major problem has arisen in determining the final match played by West Germany, as of course the DFB has no reason to make any definition. To simplify matters 'FOOTBALL IN EUROPE' has considered the World Cup Final of 1990 to be the final match played by West Germany although we must stress that this is purely a question of individual interpretation. Consequently, all matches played under control of the DFB during Season 1990/91 are found in the new International Review for Germany.

There are strong arguments for deeming the matches played in August and October against Portugal and Sweden as played by West Germany, however, this would also bring about complications. A match was planned during November 1990 between the teams of East and West Germany to celebrate the unification of the two football federations. As it happened however, the match did not take place due to the fear of crowd violence. By considering all matches played up to this date as West German matches however would seem at cross purposes as Germany played a qualification match for the European Championships against Luxembourg in October. At the same time it should be stated that the final match of the DDR was played in September against Belgium. Incidentally, we have received queries concerning the match played by the DDR on 28/7/90 against the USA. This match was not recognized as a full International by the football federation of the DDR, their team being made up of 2nd Division Players and referred to as an Olympic XI.

We hope now to have made the position clear regarding the calculation of caps and goals in the International Reviews of West Germany and Germany to be found in this publication. To sum up, that of West Germany includes matches played between 1950 and 1990, and that of Germany between 1908 and 1990, inclusive of those played by Western Germany but exclusive of those played by the DDR.

STRUCTURE OF LEAGUES AND CUPS

The reunification of Germany has brought about the need to create a single structure for the leagues and cup competitions of the DDR and Western Germany. In reality this has meant the old DDR competitions being swallowed up by the West German structure under control of the DFB.

The question will probably remain whether Season 1990/91 was the last for the DDR or the first for the new Germany. The old DDR league and cup structure in fact remained intact, being referred to as region Nordost by the DFB, a reference that was not accepted in the region itself. In fact, UEFA has accepted European Cup entrants for Season 1991/92 from the old DDR competitions despite the non-existence of the country since July 1990.

In order to accommodate clubs from the DDR, the 1 Bundesliga has been increased to 20 clubs and the 2 Bundesliga to 24 clubs for season 1991/92. It must surely be claimed that the DDR clubs have been poorly treated as they provide no more than 8 of the 44 Bundesliga clubs. In fact Season 1991/92 will be the first of 3 transitional seasons as the 1 Bundesliga will be reduced to 16 clubs for season 1993/94. For this reason, the 2 Bundesliga is split into 2 groups of 12 clubs, to form promotion and relegation sections for the 2nd half of the season.

In fact, clubs from West Germany have hardly been affected at all by the restructuring of the leagues. The only disadvantage felt was that 2 clubs were promoted from the Amateur Oberliga instead of the usual four. For Season 1991/92 the Amateur Oberliga will consist of 10 sections, 3 being created for DDR clubs, also requiring to include clubs from the old Amateur-Oberliga Berlin. Promotion play offs at the end of Season 1991/92 will also include clubs finishing in 4th place in the 2 2 Bundesliga relegation sections.

One single cup competition (DFB Pokal) will exist for Season 1991/92, 88 clubs competing in order to accommodate the DDR clubs. This will, of course, mean that an extra round of 24 matches is necessary in order to arrive at 64 clubs.

Due to the uncertainty concerning the exact date of football reunification, we consider it permissible to still refer to the DDR and West Germany in the 1990/91 edition of 'FOOTBALL IN EUROPE', particularly when bearing in mind that the original league structures still existed. Of course, the reunification of the country has led to numerous name changes to the DDR clubs, ■ process that may continue for some time.

The old DDR clubs would appear to face ■ very uncertain future, particularly as the region as a whole now faces economic problems of astronomical proportions. The DFB pursues a strict policy in the granting of professional licences, dependant on the financial position of the clubs. At the end of Season 1990/91 Rot-Weiss Essen have had their licence revoked and Hertha

BSC and Mainz 05 only retained theirs' following an appeal. In order to survive at Bundesliga level it will therefore probably be necessary for the DDR clubs to attract considerable Western sponsorship over the coming years.

At the end of season 1990/91 Bundesliga places were granted to DDR clubs as follows : -

1 Bundesliga - 2 places for champions and runners up of Oberliga

2 Bundesliga - 4 places for 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th clubs of Oberliga

2 places for Winners of 2 play-off sections comprising 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th placed clubs of Oberliga plus 2 2Liga Champions

The final stages of the match were marred by the encroachment of spectators on the field of play. BVV Den Bosch took the Dutch FA to court after they had declared themselves responsible for the lack of organisation around the match. The court ruled that the second half of the match should be replayed behind closed doors, however, this decision was reversed on appeal and the result allowed to stand.

Soccer in the Soviet Union during Season 1990 has of course been affected by the political situation, particularly regarding the strong nationalistic tendencies and developments in the state of Georgia and the declaration of independence issue in Lithuania. In order to substantiate these claims, Dinamo Tbilisi, Chervye Lanchkhvili, Zalgiris Vilnius, Torpedo Kutaisi and Dinamo Batumi withdrew from the Soviet Supreme and 1st Leagues. These clubs then proceeded to join the Georgian Supreme League and Baltic League, both competitors in the local league structure below the various zones of the Soviet 3rd League. Nevertheless we feel that the final tables of these local leagues should appear as they contain clubs from the 1989 Soviet Supreme and 1st Leagues: Dinamo Tbilisi, Torpedo Kutaisi, Dinamo Batumi had in fact changed their names to Iberyia, Kutaisi and Batumi respectively, prior to Season 1990.

Naturally, these clubs in taking their action, are reliant on the future independence of the republics of Georgia and Lithuania from the Soviet Union. Whatever the future may hold in this respect, any re-entry in to the Soviet League will entail re-joining at the lowest level.

USSR CUP 1989/90

The existence of the Baltic League was as things turned out extremely shortlived, following the decision of the Lithuanian clubs to form their own national championship in 1991. The clubs have chosen for an autumn-spring season and a shortened championship has therefore been played during Spring 1991. The 1991/92 Championship will commence on the 15th August 1991. Aigdas Jasinskias informs us that he is in possession of detailed information covering the Spring 1991 Season, and we are pleased to announce that we hope to produce the publication FOOTBALL IN LITHUANIA Spring Season 1991 during the coming months.

INTERNATIONAL LINE-UPS 1990

[illegible]

Note: On 30 April 1991 the USSR Football Federation decided to recognize 12 matches previously played by the country's Olympic XI, as full internationals. This decision has an important bearing on the information appearing on this page, e.g. caps (totals of Oleg Blokhin and Anatoly Davydov become 112 & 97 respectively). Furthermore one of the matches concerned is USSR 3 (goal 0 played 9/10/50 in Moscow. It is felt however that the published International Review does not reflect the position as it stood on 31/12/50. We will therefore be providing full details of the badly recognized matches with our 1991 International review.

DEVELOPMENTS IN YUGOSLAVIA

The political upheavals and civil unrest during the Summer of 1991 have at the time of going to press already had an important influence on Yugoslav football. Soon after the troubles began Dinamo Zagreb changed its' name to HASK Gradanski Zagreb reverting to the names of the clubs from whence it originated. The name change is of course political dynamite. HASK Zagreb prior to and during the 2nd world war were known as the club portraying strong Croatian nationalistic feeling. Also in June an international match was arranged between Croatia and Slovenia. At the time the question of Yugoslavia's borders was of great political importance and it is no doubt deliberate provocation that the match was held at Murska Sobota, a spot very close to the point where the borders of Yugoslavia, Hungary and Austria meet. No effort was spared to acquire the strongest possible representation, Croatia even making use of foreign based stars, Bogdan (Karlsruher SC), Asanovic (AS Cannes) and Cvjetkovic (St.Truiden VV). A similar invitation afforded to Sracko Katanec was however declined. For their part, Slovenia selected the Partizan Beograd player, Dzoni Novak.

Slovenia 0 Croatia 1

Slovenia : Simeunovic, Jancic, Englaro, Galic, Jermanis (Cviki 68), Zulic, Zidan, Ceh (Larger 80), Pate, Novak, Gliha (Vidovic 80).

Croatia : Ladic, Vulic (Vukovic 30), Drazic, Zupetic, Bogdan, Istvanic, Jurcevic (Komljenovic 45), Mladenovic (Kalapac 80), Asanovic (Biskup 80), Boban, Cvjetkovic (Separovic 45).

0-1 Komljenovic 65

Attendance : 4,000

The Yugoslav Football Federation could only follow these events with dismay, and reacted by promptly publishing the 1st and 2nd Division fixtures for Season 1991/92. The season was to open on the 3rd of August with the following 1st Division fixtures :-

Zeljeznicar v Zemun, Vardar v C.Zvezda, Rijeka v Borac, Proleter v HASK Gradanski, Osijek v Radnicki, Zagreb v Vojvodina, Hajduk v Velez, Partizan v Olimpija and Rad v Sarajevo. As time passed the chances of these matches taking place diminished day by day, leading the Federation to postpone them until the 10th of August, at the same time issuing an ultimatum to the Croatian and Slovenian clubs that if they did not declare their intention of taking part prior to the 7th of August they would be excluded and their places taken by other clubs. In the event only Olimpija Ljubljana heeded the ultimatum, however, they withdrew at the last minute following pressure from the Slovenia Federation insisting that they should take part in the Slovenian Championship to be formed shortly. The draw for the 1st round of the Yugoslavian Cup was allowed to stand, with the stipulation that clubs drawn against opponents that failed to appear would be awarded a 3-0 victory. Particularly amusing here was the planned match between The Yugoslavian Army XI and HASK Gradanski. It is of course impossible to predict events in the coming months, however we do feel that we should clarify the position of FOOTBALL IN EUROPE concerning political developments in Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union. It is felt that it is of great interest to record the formation of new leagues set up in republics striving for independence. We will however not create separate sections for these republics until they are recognised as separate entities by UEFA.
